Baldwin Park Unified Hosts Annual Spelling Bee on Feb. 18

30 students battle for chance to compete in county contest

WHAT: Thirty top spellers from Baldwin Park Unified's 13 elementary and two middle schools will compete for the District Spelling Bee crown and a chance to represent Baldwin Park Unified at the 11th annual Los Angeles County Elementary Spelling Bee.

WHEN: 6 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 18

WHERE: Performing Arts Center of Baldwin Park
4640 Main Ave.
Baldwin Park

DETAILS: The District competition features the top two spellers in grades four through six from each school. Spellers will be eliminated after making a single mistake until two spellers remain. The winning speller must be able to spell the word last word missed as well as the next word offered. The winner will compete March 30 in the Los Angeles County Elementary Spelling Bee; the winner of that competition moves on to the statewide contest in April.

Coverage and/or inclusion of this event in your calendar of events is welcome and greatly appreciated.
