Lynwood Unified to Host College Football Recruitment Combine for Students

WHAT: Lynwood Unified and the National College Resources Foundation are set to host a two-day Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU) Combine, where unsigned Lynwood and Firebaugh high seniors, underclassmen and junior college athletes will have the chance to get recruited into one of 23 colleges and onto their football teams.

Students will participate in high-intensity drills throughout the event's first day; HBCU coaches and staff will select students to advance to a second, final day of tryouts.

Representatives from the participating HBCUs – including Tuskegee University, Lincoln State University and Virginia State University – will award on-the-spot acceptances and scholarships to students after the second-day session.

WHEN: Saturday, April 29 Sunday, April 30 (for select students)
8 a.m. to 3 p.m. 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

WHERE: Lynwood District field
4050 E. Imperial Hwy.
Lynwood

MORE: The National College Resources Foundation (NCRF) was developed in 1999 to serve as a vital link between minorities and college admissions. NCRF's mission is to curtail the high school dropout rate and increase degree and/or certificate enrollment among underserved and underrepresented youth.
