Fontana Unified's Canyon Crest Elementary to Celebrate 21st Century Learning Exemplar Designation

WHAT: Canyon Crest Elementary will celebrate its 21st Century Learning Exemplar School designation – given to just 18 K-12 schools and educational organizations across the country – with a campus ceremony featuring District leaders, teachers, students and staff.

Canyon Crest's band and Kaiser High's band will perform amid speeches from the Fontana Unified superintendent, Principal Dr. Kelly Wilbert, teachers and students. Following the ceremony, Canyon Crest will open its campus for a college and career fair, complete with family-friendly activities, food trucks and giveaways.

WHEN: Thursday, May 16
Ceremony, performances and family activities – 5:30 p.m.
College and Career Fair – 6:15 p.m.

WHERE: Canyon Crest Elementary
11851 Cherry Ave., Fontana

DETAILS: The 21st Century Learning Exemplar Schools designation is awarded by the Battelle for Kids Partnership for 21st Century Learning (P21), a national advocacy group that encourages educators to infuse technology into their curriculum.

Canyon Crest was evaluated on and lauded for its commitment to college, career and life readiness; education support systems and intentional design; engaged learning approaches; equitable student access to 21st century learning; student acquisition of 21st century knowledge and skills; and partnerships for sustainable success.

Coverage and/or inclusion of this event in your calendar of events is welcome and greatly appreciated.
