San Gabriel Unified Elementary to Freshen Campus during Beautification Day

WHAT: Wilson Elementary students, families, teachers and staff gather to brighten the school campus during the school's first Beautification Day.

Volunteers will leave their mark on the Wilson campus through painting and gardening projects that promote school spirit and improve campus appearance.

WHEN: Saturday, Jan. 19
10 a.m. to noon

WHERE: Wilson Elementary School
8317 E. Sheffield Road, San Gabriel

DETAILS: The Beautification Day is part of Wilson Elementary's ongoing community service initiative and a take on the annual MLK Day of Service, which empowers individuals to volunteer in their communities and honor the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Every Wilson student who participates in the day of service will also leave a lasting impression on the playground with a permanent handprint.

Coverage and/or inclusion of this event in your calendar of events is welcomed and greatly appreciated.
