Historically Black Colleges and Universities Caravan to Visit Lynwood Unified High Schools

WHAT: Lynwood Unified High School students will have the opportunity to earn on-the-spot acceptance to Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU) and get their college application fees waived when a caravan of college recruiters and admission counselors visit District campuses.

The Lynwood Unified Equity Department has worked with seniors to ensure they have prepared transcripts and test scores for the caravan, which will include Tuskegee University and Charles R. Drew University of Medicine and Science.

WHEN: Thursday, Jan. 30
8:30 to 10 a.m. at Lynwood High School
10:30 a.m. to noon at Firebaugh High School

WHERE: Lynwood High School
4050 E. Imperial Hwy.
Lynwood

Firebaugh High School
5246 Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd
Lynwood, CA 90262

MORE: The event is not limited to African American students; the colleges and universities participating in the caravan have initiatives to boost enrollment of Latino students as well.

Students will have the opportunity to meet one on one with representatives and receive pertinent information about financial aid, student life, admissions, athletics, clubs and more.

MEDIA: Contact Jahmal Corner for more information at (206) 579-4432.
