Baldwin Park Adult Ed Program to Stage Lunar New Year Performance

WHAT: The Baldwin Park Adult and Community Education (BPACE) Older Adult Program, in association with the City of Baldwin Park and the Allan Company, will welcome community members to celebrate the Year of the Pig with an array of performances, including fan dances and a traditional lion dance.

WHEN: 9 to 11 a.m. Friday, Feb. 8

WHERE: Performing Arts Center, 4640 N. Maine Ave., Baldwin Park

DETAILS: Performances are by BPACE students, instructors and community groups. Between dance numbers, performers will give presentations on the holiday's cultural significance to attendees, including Senator Susan Rubio.

At the end of the program, audience members are invited to enjoy dim sum and green tea. This is an annual community event that features classical instrumental pieces, Chinese folk dances and contemporary routines.

MEDIA: Call Amanda Nieto at 909-447-2407 to arrange coverage.

Coverage and/or inclusion of this event in your calendar is greatly appreciated.
