

Media

Advisory

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: Feb. 6, 2018

CONTACT: William Diepenbrock

PHONE: 909-206-5304

Baldwin Park Adult Ed Program to Host Lunar New Year Performances

Annual Celebration will include traditional dances, dim sum

WHAT: The Baldwin Park Adult and Community Education (BPACE) Older Adult Program, in association with the City of Baldwin Park, will welcome 400 community members to a Year of the Dog celebration of the Lunar New Year with a traditional lion dance, artistic performances and cultural presentations.

WHEN: 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. Friday, Feb. 16

WHERE: Performing Arts Center, 4640 N. Maine Ave., Baldwin Park

DETAILS: The annual event will feature welcoming remarks from BPACE Senior Director Dr. John Kerr. In addition to the lion dance, BPACE students, instructors and community groups will perform the emperor broad sword, tai chi canes, tea blossom dance, Taiwan aboriginal dance, mei hua san long (fan) dance, cheong sam dance, carmen gypsy dance and sailor dance, among others. At the end of the program, dim sum, rice, green tea, oranges and fortune cookies will be served.

MEDIA: To arrange coverage of this event, contact William Diepenbrock at 909-206-5304.

Listing this program in your calendar of events is welcomed and greatly appreciated.