Fontana Unified's Wayne Ruble Middle School to Celebrate Schools to Watch Designation

WHAT: Wayne Ruble Middle School will celebrate its California Schools to Watch listing with city officials, District personnel, teachers, students and staff during a special campus ceremony.

Wayne Ruble's band and cheerleaders will perform amid speeches from the Fontana Unified superintendent, a California League of Schools representative and Wayne Ruble's principal and ASB president.

WHEN: Friday, April 12
8:45 to 9:45 a.m.

WHERE: Wayne Ruble Middle School
6762 Juniper Ave., Fontana

DETAILS: Wayne Ruble Middle School and Southridge Middle School are among 16 newly designated schools in the state to earn a spot on the list this year.

Launched by the National Forum to Accelerate Middle-Grades Reform, the list identifies schools that promote academic excellence, responsiveness to early adolescence and social equity, among other facets.

Coverage and/or inclusion of this event in your calendar of events is welcome and greatly appreciated.
