Lynwood Seniors to Announce College Choices with Mayor at Decision Day Celebrations

WHAT: Nearly 400 seniors from Lynwood and Firebaugh high schools will announce their colleges of choice during a pair of Decision Day events on April 27.

First, Lynwood Mayor José Luis Solache will keynote the Lynwood High celebration in front of an audience that includes parents and freshmen. The seniors will select their schools and offer words of encouragement to underclassmen.

Then, Firebaugh will host its Falcon Signing Day with music and opportunity drawings.

WHEN: Friday, April 27
10:30 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. at Lynwood High School
12:15 to 12:50 p.m. at Firebaugh High School

WHERE: Lynwood High School
4050 E. Imperial Way
Lynwood

Firebaugh High School
5246 Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd.
Lynwood

MORE: This is the third year Lynwood Unified has hosted college signing day events to encourage students to attend college and support those making their higher education plans.

Students will reveal their college decisions this year by signing a large poster to motivate all grade levels to strive toward their goals.
