Los Angeles Philharmonic to Host Free Concert for Inglewood Unified Students and Families

WHAT: The Los Angeles Philharmonic is partnering with Inglewood Unified School District to offer a free orchestra, chamber music and jazz concert to Inglewood Unified's community during its Neighborhood Concerts tour, making music more accessible to students and families.

The concert will be the third and final of this season's Neighborhood Concerts tour, which will include performances at Cal State Los Angeles and Whittier High School. The event will open with Inglewood High School's award-winning marching band.

The Neighborhood Concert featuring the LA Philharmonic, led by Associate Conductor Paolo Bortolameolli, will include works by Duke Ellington, Aldemaro Romero and Leonard Bernstein along with an LA Phil-commissioned work by Paul Desenne.

WHEN: 7 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 28

WHERE: Morningside High School's Flo Hyman Auditorium
10500 Yukon Ave. S.
Inglewood

DETAILS: For information and to reserve tickets, call (310) 419-3080. Unoccupied seats will be made available at 6:50 p.m.
