Covina-Valley Unified to Hold Health and Wellness Center and Family Resource Room Ribbon Cutting Ceremony

WHAT: Covina-Valley Unified School District will hold a ribbon cutting ceremony for the new Health and Wellness Center and Family Resource Room, which will provide a full-service location for students and families in the communities served by the District to access resources that help eliminate barriers to school success.

The Center will serve as the hub for the District's social workers and the entire Health and Student Services Department, including a team of registered and licensed vocational nurses. It will offer a variety of no-cost and low-cost programs and services to children, youth, and families who reside in the communities served by the Covina-Valley Unified School District.

WHEN: 4 p.m.
Monday, Jan. 30

WHERE: Covina-Valley Health and Wellness Center and Family Resource Room
4555 N. Lark Ellen Ave., Covina, CA 91722
(Former Lark Ellen Elementary School)

DETAILS: The ceremony will include short speeches delivered by Superintendent Dr. Elizabeth Eminhizer, Covina-Valley Unified Board of Education President Maria Caceres, and Board Vice President Maria Cruz.

Health and Wellness Center social workers and nurses will give tours of the new Center following the ceremony.

Light refreshments will be provided.
