El Monte Union to Celebrate Visual Arts at Annual District Art Showcase

WHAT: The El Monte Union High School District will host its 18th annual student art show and reception, recognizing more than 300 students who earned accolades for entries in the Los Angeles County Fair Art Competition.

The exhibition will showcase 314 pieces from the District's seven schools, including 235 submissions that received awards at the fair. Students will be awarded certificates of recognition for their outstanding work in drawing, painting, ceramics, graphic design, creative writing and more.

WHEN: 5 to 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 25

WHERE: South El Monte High School Cafetorium
1001 N. Durfee Ave., South El Monte

DETAILS: Since 1999, El Monte Union has recognized student excellence in visual arts through the District Art Show. An Arts for All District, El Monte Union has worked diligently to augment a robust arts program by expanding courses, developing summer workshops and cultivating an arts culture at each of the schools, instilling in students a passion for the arts. The District aims to ensure each student's success in his or her highest academic and personal aspirations through the use of creativity and innovation. The LA County Fair honors help to recognize each student's contribution to the District's artistic achievements.

Coverage and/or inclusion of this event in your calendar of events is welcome and greatly appreciated.

The vision of the El Monte Union High School District is to empower and motivate our students to be resilient, college and career ready, lifelong learners and contributing members of our global society.
