El Monte Union to Hold District College Night Oct. 9

Event will feature more than 50 colleges, resource fair and workshops

EL MONTE – The El Monte Union High School District will host its annual College Night and Resource Fair at Arroyo High School on Monday, Oct. 9, providing students and parents the opportunity to explore more than 50 colleges and universities and learn more about what steps to take to enter a two- or four-year university.

Students from all of the District's high schools are invited to participate in the event, which will take place from 5 to 7:30 p.m. at Arroyo High School, 4921 N. Cedar Ave., El Monte.

The fair will feature representatives from more than 50 colleges and universities, including UC Berkeley, UCLA, Cal State Fullerton, Cal State Los Angeles, University of La Verne, Cal Lutheran, Otis College of Art and Design, USC, University of Albany, Pasadena City College and Rio Hondo College. Representatives from each military branch will also be on site.

The event will also feature a college resource fair with representatives from various student support services, including Cal-SOAP, El Monte Promise Foundation, Pasadena City College Pathways Program, Upward Bound, Work Source, El Monte/Rosemead Adult School and career technical education programs, and the CSU Early Assessment Program.

Students and parents may participate in the following workshops: "Understanding the CSU Early Assessment Program (EAP)," "The Dream Continues: Access to Higher Education for Undocumented Students," and "The Systems of Higher Education."

Transportation will be available from all EMUHS District comprehensive high school. For more information, contact each high school's Career Center.
