Lynwood High Students to Publicly Express Concerns in Wake of Presidential Election

WHAT: Lynwood High School is hosting a U-Knight rally to support student concerns relating to the results of last week's presidential election.

Students will have the opportunity to express what America means to them with teachers, staff and peers, and will wear the color purple to demonstrate unity among all parties.

LHS is also participating in a safety pin movement, with students and staff wearing safety pins to show their strong support for one another.

WHEN: Wednesday, Nov. 16
11:30 a.m.

WHERE: Lynwood High School courtyard
4050 Imperial Highway
Lynwood

MEDIA: For on-site event information, contact Lindsay Ivins at 480-335-3149.
