Baldwin Park High School Play Explores High School Social Structures

Play crafted specifically for teen actors, audiences

- WHAT: Celebrating over 30 years of live theater, Baldwin Park High School's Brave Theater presents "The Locker Next 2 Mine," a comedy/drama by playwright Jonathan Dorf.
- WHEN: 7 to 10 p.m. Friday, Nov. 18 and Saturday, Nov. 19
- WHERE: Performing Arts Center of Baldwin Park
4640 Maine Ave.
Baldwin Park
- DETAILS: Set in high school, "The Locker Next 2 Mine" focuses on a new student, Alisa, who discovers on her first day of school that her locker is next to a sprawling shrine for a popular student who recently died in an auto accident. In trying to navigate her way through a new social structure, Alisa enters a parallel world of secrets and recriminations. Directed by BPHS drama teacher Jennifer Nitschke, "The Locker Next 2 Mine" features an all-student cast and crew. Baldwin Park High is a member of the International Thespian Society, which recognizes student excellence in theater.

Tickets are $10 at the door.
