Rio Hondo College's Annual Tennis Tournament Aims to Raise Donations, Support for Women's Tennis Team

WHAT: Rio Hondo College women's tennis team will host The Unger Games, a round-robin tennis tournament that offers prizes for the top finishers.

WHEN: 9:30 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 19

WHERE: Rio Hondo College tennis courts, 3600 Workman Mill Road, Whittier

DETAILS: Named for tennis coach Karen Unger, The Unger Games is an annual outreach event that raises funds for the program. Gates open at 9 a.m. for individuals who wish to warm up before the tournament. Partners are randomly chosen for all rounds but one.

Parking is free next to the tennis courts. Entry fees are $10 for high school and college students, $15 for others – remaining steady for the last four years. For tickets, to make donations or obtain information about the event, contact Unger at kunger@riohondo.edu.
