San Ysidro School District Spends a Morning with Emmy Winner C.S. Keys

WHAT: San Ysidro School District will provide about 15 District families with toys, clothing and other necessities during a special holiday breakfast with radio/TV personality C.S. Keys. Families in attendance will receive blankets collected during the annual Project Dream blanket drive. Gift baskets filled with canned food and toiletry items will also be given to participating families.

WHEN: Saturday, Dec. 17
9 to 11 a.m.

WHERE: The Tilted Kilt at Westfield Mission Valley
1640 Camino Del Rio N.,
San Diego, CA

DETAILS: As part of San Ysidro School District's ongoing commitment to support all of its students and families, especially those in need, the District has partnered with C.S. Keys to provide food and clothing to families during the holiday season. C.S. Keys is a television weathercaster in San Diego and a four time Emmy Award winner. This is the first distribution of blankets collected from the annual Project Dream blanket drive.

Transportation will be provided to the breakfast at 8 a.m. from the District office, 4350 Otay Mesa Road, San Ysidro.
