Covina-Valley Unified to Host Ribbon-Cutting Ceremony for New South Hills High School Library

WHAT: Covina-Valley Unified School District will hold a vibrant ceremony to celebrate the grand opening of the new South Hills High School library. Designed as a cutting-edge learning hub, the new library features state-of-the-art technology, along with versatile individual and collaborative workspaces to inspire and support student success.

WHEN: 4 p.m., Thursday, Jan. 23

WHERE: South Hills High School Library
645 Barranca Street, West Covina

DETAILS: The ribbon-cutting ceremony will include an address given by Superintendent Dr. Elizabeth Eminhizer, recognition from civic and state leaders, and a performance by the South Hills High Jazz Band. District and school representatives will conduct tours highlighting the new library features after the ceremony. Light refreshments will be served.
