Upland Unified to Celebrate Artistry, Learning, and Innovation at 15th Annual Fusion Fest

- WHAT: Upland Unified School District is hosting its 15th annual Fusion Fest, a celebration of student creativity, learning, and achievement across all grade levels. The event will showcase the talents of students from the District's ten elementary schools, two junior highs, and both comprehensive and continuation high schools. Attendees will enjoy a wide array of student work spanning visual and performing arts, career technical education programs, and, for the first time, engaging science demonstrations – all led by students.
- WHEN: 3:30 p.m. – 7 p.m., Thursday, May 29
- WHERE: Upland High School
565 W. 11th St., Upland
- DETAILS: Fusion Fest will feature food trucks, live music, student showcases and performances, and a car show. The District's Mental Health Fair and Panel will be offering resources and dialogue centered on student wellness. Upland High School's Senior Awards Ceremony will also be running concurrently, recognizing academic and athletic excellence and honoring seniors who have committed to military service.
