El Monte Union Set to Honor the Class of 2025 with Lively Graduation Ceremonies

WHAT:

El Monte Union High School District (EMUHSD) will host commencement ceremonies to honor more than 1,850 graduating students from the District's five comprehensive high schools, alternative high school, adult school, and transition center. EMUHSD's Class of 2025 graduates have earned acceptance to top colleges, universities, and military programs, including Yale, Georgetown, Johns Hopkins, Princeton, Stanford, UCLA, and the United States Navy.

Students have also garnered a wide range of academic, athletic, and artistic honors, including prestigious scholarships such as QuestBridge and Edison, the California State Seal of Biliteracy, state recognitions, league championships, and historic achievements in the visual and performing arts. The District is also bidding farewell to its graduating Student Board Member, South El Monte High School senior Andrea Pablo.
