Summit High School Band to Hold Fundraiser for Upcoming Carnegie Hall Performance

WHAT: The Summit High School Advanced Orchestra and its boosters will hold a fundraiser for the music program's upcoming trip to New York to perform at the legendary Carnegie Hall as part of the National Band and Orchestra Festival from April 3-4. Members of Summit's Forte Piano Advanced Orchestra and Wind Ensemble will perform their entire Carnegie Hall set, conducted by band director James Sharp.

WHEN: Thursday, March 12
7 p.m.

WHERE: Summit High School Multipurpose Room
15551 Summit Ave., Fontana

DETAILS: Summit High has raised more than $77,000 to pay for the student trip to New York, and is looking to raise another $13,000 before the early April performance. Tickets are $20 and include a dinner consisting of Vince's Spaghetti, salad, rolls, and a drink.

Those unable to attend the fundraiser can donate using the Zelle app to Skyhawkperformance@gmail.com or visit Summit High's GoFundMe page.

Coverage and/or inclusion of this event in your calendar of events is welcome and greatly appreciated.
