Kaiser High School Band to Hold Fundraiser for Upcoming Carnegie Hall Performance

- WHAT: The Kaiser High School Music Department will hold a fundraiser for the music program's upcoming trip to New York to perform at the legendary Carnegie Hall as part of the National Band and Orchestra Festival from April 3-4. The Kaiser High Concert Band, String Orchestra, and Wind Ensemble will perform their entire Carnegie Hall set under the direction of band director Roberto Ronquillo, along with a performance from Southridge Tech Middle School's advanced band and orchestra, led by music teacher Sara Dvorak.
- WHEN: Friday, March 13
5 p.m.: Kaiser Concert Band
5:30 p.m.: Southridge Advanced Band
6 p.m.: Kaiser String Orchestra
6:30 p.m.: Southridge Advanced Orchestra
7 p.m.: Kaiser Wind Ensemble
- WHERE: Kaiser High School Multipurpose Room
11155 Almond Ave., Fontana
- DETAILS: Kaiser High's music program has raised $40,000 to pay for the student trip to New York, and is looking to raise another $10,000 before the early April performance. Tickets are $7, with food sold separately. Those unable to attend the fundraiser can donate using the Zelle app at Kaiserbandboosters@gmail.com.

Coverage and/or inclusion of this event in your calendar of events is welcome and greatly appreciated.
