Fontana Unified School Police to Host Regional School Resource Officer Association Meeting

WHAT: The Fontana School Police Department (FSPD) will host the School Resource Officer Association of San Bernardino and Riverside Counties meeting, bringing together regional law enforcement and school safety partners to strengthen collaboration and coordinate proactive safety efforts across local schools.

The association brings together representatives from a variety of local law enforcement agencies and school safety organizations to discuss topics including current safety trends on school campuses, how to enhance collaboration between school sites and law enforcement, and best practices aimed at strengthening student safety and well-being.

WHEN: Tuesday, March 24
8:30 – 9 a.m.: Capture b-roll
9 – 9:30 a.m.: Meeting begins

WHERE: Fontana Unified School District Office
9680 Citrus Ave., Fontana

DETAILS: Led by FSPD Chief of Police Rich Randolph, the department is taking a leadership role in fostering cross-departmental communication and collaboration to enhance campus safety and emergency preparedness throughout participating school districts and agencies. Law enforcement agencies, and college and school safety departments attending include the Redlands Police Department, Chaffey College Police Department, the San Bernardino County District Attorney, and more.

Fontana Unified prioritizes the safety of its students, teachers, staff, and families. Through continued partnership between the FSPD and regional agencies, the District remains committed to addressing community needs through proactive planning, coordination, and prevention-focused strategies.

Coverage and/or inclusion of this event in your calendar of events is welcome and greatly appreciated.
