El Monte Union to Honor the Class of 2026 with Lively Graduation Ceremonies

WHAT: El Monte Union High School District (EMUHSD) will host commencement ceremonies honoring more than 1,850 graduates from its five comprehensive high schools, alternative education program, adult school, and transition center.

The Class of 2026 has earned acceptance to top institutions including the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Northwestern University, Claremont McKenna College, the University of California, San Diego, Georgia Institute of Technology, and Princeton University, with students pursuing studies in fields such as public health, business administration, and aerospace, electrical, and computer engineering.

Throughout the school year, EMUHSD seniors have earned recognition for academic, athletic, and artistic achievement, including an Edison scholarship, California State Seals of Biliteracy, state honors, and league championships. The District will also recognize South El Monte High School senior Ashley Yu, outgoing student board member, as part of this year's graduating class.
