Covina-Valley Unified to Host Back to School Events, Providing Students with Supplies and Resources

WHAT: Covina-Valley Unified School District will host its annual Stuff the Bus school supply drive and Back to School Extravaganza to provide students with free school supplies, haircuts, and health and wellness screenings in preparation for the 2026-27 school year.

WHEN: Stuff the Bus
8 a.m. to 1 p.m., Saturday, July 25

Back to School Extravaganza
9 a.m. to 1 p.m., Tuesday, Aug. 11

WHERE: Stuff the Bus
Walmart – 1275 N. Azusa Ave., Covina

Back to School Extravaganza
Covina-Valley Health and Wellness Center – 4555 N. Lark Ellen Ave., Covina

DETAILS: During Stuff the Bus, Covina-Valley Unified, in partnership with Kiwanis and Sunrise Rotary, will collect donations of new school supplies. District staff will be on-site to distribute donation wish lists and encourage community support.

The fourth annual Back to School Extravaganza will feature a free pancake breakfast, complimentary haircuts, free backpacks and school supplies, and access to health and wellness screenings from community partners. District social workers and nurses will also be available to connect families with valuable resources and services before the first day of school.
