Fontana Unified to Celebrate Nearly 500 Seniors' College Dreams at CSUSB Direct Admission Event

WHAT: Nearly 500 Fontana Unified School District seniors eligible to attend California State University, San Bernardino (CSUSB) in the fall will visit the college for a direct admission celebration that will include campus tours, financial aid information, and a student panel featuring District alumni currently attending CSUSB.

Now in its second year, the District's partnership with CSUSB guarantees admission to students who apply and meet eligibility requirements by the end of their senior year.

District officials and students will be available for interviews upon request.

WHEN: Tuesday, Oct. 27
9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

WHERE: SMSU North Conference Center, CSU San Bernardino
5500 University Parkway, San Bernardino

DETAILS: Students will receive an official welcome from CSUSB leadership, meet their university outreach counselors, and learn about financial aid and anticipated college costs. Panelists representing the university's academic colleges, Honors College, and impacted programs will answer student questions. The event will include food, a resource fair, and interactive experiences.

The CSUSB agreement is part of Fontana Unified's broad network of college partnerships offering eligible students guaranteed admission pathways. Additional partners include California Baptist University, the University of La Verne, Cal Poly Pomona, the University of Redlands, and the University of California, Merced.
