Fontana Unified Marks 10 Years of College Submit Days with Celebrations, On-the-Spot College Admissions

WHAT: Fontana High School (FOHI) will celebrate the 10th anniversary of its College Application Submit Day (CASD), bringing together more than 400 students and their families for a special celebration featuring opportunities for on-the-spot college admissions from local universities.

FOHI was the first to host the event at Fontana Unified, inspiring similar celebrations throughout all comprehensive high schools across the District. This month, each high school will hold individual CASDs to support seniors in their next steps toward higher education.
