Río Hondo College Hosts ‘A Taste of Río’ to Raise Funds for Students

WHAT: Community members can experience the vibrant spirit of Río Hondo College during the annual “A Taste of Río” celebration.

The event, hosted by the Río Hondo College Foundation, is an evening of culinary delights, fine wine and craft beer, captivating entertainment and a silent auction – all with the objective of raising funds for scholarships, programs and equipment to support Río Hondo College students.

Among the distinguished guests expected to attend are Assemblymember Lisa Calderon, Los Angeles County Supervisor Hilda Solis and Whittier Mayor Joe Vinatieri, as well as local elected Board members and Río Hondo College leaders.

Entertainment will be provided by the Heavens to Betsy band, DJ Emiliano Miranda and guitarist Daniel Vera.

WHEN: 6 to 9 p.m., Friday, June 9. VIP preview begins at 5 p.m.

WHERE: 3600 Workman Mill Road, Whittier, CA 90601

DETAILS: This event is open to individuals age 21 and over.

Thank you to Río Hondo College’s Signature Sponsors, tBP Architecture and Therma. For more information about “A Taste of Río,” contact Katherine Sarno, Foundation Assistant at (562) 463-6654 or email at foundation@riohondo.edu.
