Covina-Valley Unified to Host Groundbreaking Ceremony for New South Hills High School Library

WHAT: Covina-Valley Unified School District will hold a lively ceremony to celebrate the official groundbreaking of the new South Hills High School library, creating a new learning hub for students. The library will include individual and collaborative workspaces and feature state-of-the-art technology. The project is estimated to be complete by Dec. 31, 2024, just in time for the return of students from winter break.

WHEN: 4:15 p.m., Friday, Aug. 23

WHERE: South Hills High School Quad
645 Barranca St. West Covina, CA 91791

DETAILS: The groundbreaking ceremony will include an address given by Superintendent Dr. Elizabeth Eminhizer and a performance by the South Hills High jazz band. Light refreshments will be served. District and school representatives will be available for on-camera interviews after the ceremony.
