El Monte Union to Welcome Families, Students with Back-to-School Nights

EL MONTE – El Monte Union’s high schools will host back-to-school nights for students and their families, enabling parents and guardians to connect with teachers and staff, learn about the goals for each class and explore extra-curricular programs available at each campus.

Parents and guardians will have the opportunity to meet teachers and administrators, learn about the curriculum for their students’ courses and learn about upcoming events that will contribute to their children’s academic achievement.

Back to School Nights will take place from 6 to 8 p.m. as follows:

- Thursday, Aug. 23 at South El Monte High School, 1001 Durfee Ave., South El Monte
- Tuesday, Aug. 28 at Rosemead High School, 9063 Mission Drive, Rosemead
- Thursday, Aug. 30 at El Monte High School, 3048 Tyler Ave., El Monte
- Wednesday, Sept. 12 at Arroyo High School, 4921 Cedar Ave., El Monte
- Thursday, Sept. 13 at Mountain View High School, 2900 Parkway Drive, El Monte

Fernando R. Ledesma High School will hold its event from 5 to 7 p.m. on Thursday, Sept. 20.
