Covina-Valley Unified School District to Host College and Career Fair, Provide Resources for Students

WHAT: Covina-Valley Unified School District will host a College and Career Fair to provide students with important resources as they consider their educational and professional options for the future.

More than 50 colleges and universities, trade schools, and the armed forces will be present at the event, including the University of Southern California (USC), Chapman University, Grand Canyon University (GCU), Los Angeles Trade-Technical College, the U.S. Naval Academy, and more.

WHEN: 5 to 7 p.m.
Tuesday, Oct. 4

WHERE: Covina-Valley Unified School District Field
252 W Puente St., Ste. 200, Covina, CA 91723

DETAILS: Students and families can visit booths for each school, talk to representatives, and learn more about the schools and their educational programs.

During the Fair, high school seniors can also visit the Hanes Center upstairs at the District Field to attend the Cash for College Workshop, which provides students with information and assistance regarding the financial aid process.
