North Park High School Holds Commencement for 168 Graduates

BALDWIN PARK – North Park High School celebrated commencement for 168 graduating seniors on June 1, recognizing accomplishments as they prepare for the next stage of their educational and career journeys.

Students will matriculate to Mt. San Antonio College, Rio Hondo College, Pasadena City College, East Los Angeles College, UTI and Citrus College, as well as enter the U.S. Air Force, Marine Corps and Army.

The event included a posthumous honor for Jorge Contreras, who died before his planned graduation in 2015. The honor was given to his brother, Cristian Contreras, who graduated this spring.

Scholarships were given to Jesseyln Xena Sifuentes by the Baldwin Park Organization of Supervisors and Administrators, Esteban Rafael Razo Reyes by the Baldwin Park Education Association, to Lizett Guterrez by the Association of California School Administrators and to Rocio Betancurt by the American Red Cross.

“We are tremendously proud of the Class of 2016 for reaching this milestone,” Superintendent Froilan N. Mendoza said. “We wish them success in all of their future endeavors.”
