MUSD to Host 2nd Annual Global Learning Conference to Empower Communities, Promote Diversity through Education

WHAT: The Montebello Unified School District will host its second annual Global Learning Conference, an innovative workshop that encourages the exploration of identity and diversity in the classroom and throughout our community.

Through presentations by university professors and MUSD teachers, six sessions will address identity in the classroom, student diversity through poetry, the unconstitutional deportation of Mexican Americans in the 1930's, Armenians in America, gender identity and sexuality, and how to pay for college as an undocumented student.

Dr. Enrique Ochoa – professor of history and Latin American Studies at California State University, Los Angeles – will serve as the keynote speaker at the event held at Montebello High School.

Registration is required. To register, visit <http://goog.gl/forms/XpfRaIEOOT>. Breakfast will be served.

WHEN: Saturday, Feb. 20, 2016
8 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.

WHERE: Montebello High School
1600 Whittier Blvd.
Montebello, CA 90640

Montebello Unified School District is a dynamic learning institution employing top-quality educators. It is the combined work of many that allows the District to continue educating more than 30,000 students every year using the 40 Developmental Assets at all of our school sites. It is through everyone's efforts – students, parents, teachers, staff and administrators – that we are achieving the District's number one goal of raising student achievement.
