Univision Todo es Posible Tour to Visit Bell Gardens High School

WHAT: Bell Gardens High School is among four schools across the nation – and the only one from California – chosen for a visit from the Univision-sponsored tour designed to empower Latino youths. A trio of Latino motivational speakers will talk to students about achieving their dreams during a special event on Friday, April 22 that focuses on self-awareness, internal beauty and respect for one another.

After welcome remarks from Bell Gardens High principal Juan Herrera, Laura Posada, TV personality, author, attorney and wife of former New York Yankees catcher Jorge Posada, will launch the program. Next, students will hear from Jomari Goyso, co-host of Univision's Sal y Pimienta show and the New York-based network's image consultant. Alejandra Espinoza, Nuestra Belleza Latina winner and host of Univision's La Banda show, will conclude the program.

Ten students who are interested in TV production and journalism will have the chance to win a tour of the Univision office in Los Angeles.

WHEN: Friday, April 22
10:35 a.m.

WHERE: Bell Gardens High School
6119 Agra St.
Bell Gardens, CA 90201
