Montebello Unified's Montebello High, Macy Intermediate to Welcome School Principals from China

WHAT: A delegation of high school and middle school principals from China will experience a day in the life of their United States counterparts when the 12 administrators from Jingmen, China spend a day visiting Montebello High School and Macy Intermediate School Thursday, Oct. 22, within Montebello Unified School District.

Montebello Unified School District's Superintendent of Schools Susanna Contreras Smith and Montebello High Principal Helen Meltzer will welcome the delegates from Jingmen's municipal schools in the morning at Montebello High. Afterward, the group will visit a number of classes that will be in session beginning with Spanish I and freshman studies. After a break for nutrition, the tour resumes with French, pre-calculus/calculus and physics classes.

The visiting principals will have lunch at the Happy Family Restaurant in Montebello and then trek over to Macy Intermediate, where they will be welcomed by Principal Jacinto Zavala. The itinerary at Macy's will consist of visits to science, English, intermediate band, mathematics and social studies classes.
