Norwalk-La Mirada Middle School Students to Perform Annual Concert with La Mirada Symphony

WHAT: Thirty Norwalk-La Mirada Unified School District middle school students will showcase their musical talents on the big stage when they perform with the La Mirada Symphony for a pair of concert performances. The annual music program is a showcase for the District's stellar Visual and Performing Arts (VAPA) program. Two NLMUSD music teachers – Vanessa Trevino from Benton Middle School and David Yamamoto from Corvallis Middle School – will serve as guest conductors.

The audience will be comprised of 1,000 district students, including the entire fifth-grade class, along with advanced band, orchestra and guitar class students from the middle schools.

The District offers every NLMUSD student the opportunity to take a music class upon entering sixth-grade. These performances with the La Mirada Symphony will allow potential VAPA students to experience the benefits of the program and inspire them to take advantage of the education opportunity.

WHEN: Tuesday, April 19
First performance – 10:00 a.m.
Second performance – 12:00 p.m.

WHERE: La Mirada Theatre for the Performing Arts
14900 La Mirada Boulevard, La Mirada, 90638
