

MEDIA ADVISORY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Feb. 2, 2015

CONTACT: Valerie Martinez

Juliette Funes

(909) 445-1001

African American Male Jamboree Seeks To Inspire PUSD Students, Parents

WHAT: The Pomona Alliance of Black School Educators (PABSE) and the Pomona Unified School District are hosting the seventh annual African American Male Jamboree, which aims to provide students in grades seven through 12 information on careers and offer students and their parents the resources and support to reach success.

This year's theme is "The Art of Knowing: Opportunities Behind the Scenes (Art, Music, Athletic and Business Industries)."

WHEN: 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.
Saturday, Feb. 7

WHERE: Village Academy High School
1444 E. Holt Ave.
Pomona, CA

DETAILS: Held during Black History Month, the Jamboree is an inspirational event for African American male students within Pomona Unified to pursue higher education and career goals. Attendees will receive encouragement from current and former PUSD educators, alumni and board members, as well as African American male professionals throughout Southern California. Breakout sessions include film and media, sports, spirituality, history, society and entrepreneurship. Parent breakout sessions center on the National College Resource Foundation and family health and nutrition. Local businesses, organizations and colleges will also be present. Neighboring middle school and high male students and their parents are also invited to attend. For more information, contact Gloria Prentice at (909) 620-9326 or Angelique Butler at angelique.butler@pusd.org.

Coverage and/or inclusion of this event in your calendar of events is welcome and greatly appreciated.

OUR MISSION: The Pomona Unified School District provides a well-rounded and challenging educational program of the highest quality, empowering students to lead productive, fulfilling lives as lifelong learners. Supported on a foundation of integrity and respect, students will gain academic excellence and take personal and community pride as responsible citizens and productive participants in a diverse society and global economy.

