Pomona Independent Student Film Festival Spurs Creativity at PUSD

WHAT: The Village on Indian Hill Theater's big screen will come to life when Village Academy High School hosts the second annual "PINDIE" Pomona Independent Student Film Festival, showcasing student film projects created throughout the year through the visual and performing arts and technology pathways curriculum offered by Pomona Unified schools.

Admission is free.

WHEN: 3 to 6 p.m., Saturday, May 23

WHERE: Village on Indian Hill Theaters
1444 E. Holt Ave.
Entrance #4
Pomona, CA 91767

DETAILS: The PINDIE festival – a combination of "Pomona" and "Independent" – features student film projects showcasing several visual and performing arts-related pathways offered through the Pomona Unified School District. At Village Academy, these pathways – which include Digital Video Media Production, Computer Programming and Game Design and Digital Art and Graphic Design – provide students with the professional tools and skills necessary to enter their respective industries through the mentorship and tutelage of working professionals. Additional information about the film festival is available at www.facebook.com/PINDIEFilmFestival.

Coverage and/or inclusion of this event in your calendar of events is welcome and greatly appreciated.

OUR MISSION: The Pomona Unified School District provides a well-rounded and challenging educational program of the highest quality, empowering students to lead productive, fulfilling lives as lifelong learners. Supported on a foundation of integrity and respect, students will gain academic excellence and take personal and community pride as responsible citizens and productive participants in a diverse society and global economy.
